

To all and singular unto whom these Presents shall come, know that James Patrick Howard, II, Ellsworth King of Arms, sends GREETING AND SALUTATION in the Name of His Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Westarctica: Whereas it is the privilege and responsibility of this Office, acting under the authority of the Westarctican College of Arms, to devise, assign, and record armorial bearings for those whose virtue, loyalty, and service to the Grand Duchy merit distinction; and whereas Yannick Beuvelet, Duke of La Gorce, being a member of the Peerage of Westarctica and having rendered honorable service to the realm, has brought to my attention armorial bearings long borne and recognized in connection with his name and station, though lacking formal registration with this College; and whereas it appears to me that the said arms have been used consistently and in good faith and are in all respects suitable and appropriate to his rank and dignity; Now know ye that I, the said Ellsworth King of Arms, by the authority granted unto me by His Royal Highness and on behalf of the Westarctican College of Arms, do by these Presents confirm and record unto the said Yannick Beuvelet, Duke of La Gorce, the following Arms, that is to say: Argent, a bordure compony Azure and Or, a griffon segreant Gules; and for a Crest, a paschal lamb Proper; and for Supporters, two sea-lions combatant Or, langued, armed, and finned Azure; and for a Motto, Pax Et Bonum; to have and to hold the said ensigns armorial to himself and to his heirs and successors in perpetuity, to be borne and used upon shields, standards, banners, seals, and all other appropriate places and occasions, according to the laws and customs of heraldry recognized within the Grand Duchy of Westarctica; and I do further declare that these Arms are duly recorded in the registers of the Westarctican College of Arms and shall henceforth be recognized as the lawful Arms of the said Duke and his House; such heirs and successors may bear the Arms either entire or with such due and proper differences as may reflect their descent or distinction, to be borne and used as a mark of honor and service, and to remain in good standing for all time to come. In witness whereof I have set my hand and caused the seal of my office to be affixed this sixth day of September in the Year two thousand twenty-five. ❄

Krigsvold
Ellsworth King of Arms